		Festival" by Qiu Ying of the Ming Dynasty, and "Ten Views of the West Lake" by Wang Yuanqi of the Qing Dynasty. The exhibition centrepiece "Prosperous Suzhou" was painted by the court painter, Xu Yang, during the reign of Qianlong. Completed in 1759 when Qianlong was undertaking his second southern inspection tour, "Prosperous Suzhou" provides a panoramic illustration of the 18th century Suzhou. In it, Xu painstakingly depicts all walks of life from fishermen, woodcutters, tillers to merchants, literati to civil officers as well as the fascinating scenery of Suzhou where many prosperous aspects of the city during the High Qing era are emphasized.
