The screenshot shows the e-Procurement website interface. At the top right, there are links for 'Login Register', 'Text Size', and 'Other languages'. The main header includes 'GovHK 香港政府一站通' and navigation links for 'Residents', 'Business & Trade', and 'Non-Residents'. A breadcrumb trail reads 'Home > e-Procurement > e-Procurement'. On the left is a vertical sidebar menu with items: 'e-Procurement', 'How to join', 'Participating B/Ds', 'Useful Information', 'FAQs', 'Terms and Conditions', 'User Manual', 'Search on e-Procurement', 'Download Forms', and 'Archive'. Below the sidebar is a banner for 'Fight the Virus' with the text 'Stand Your Ground & Honour To Check!'. The main content area features a large 'e-Procurement' title, social sharing icons, and a banner with benefits: 'user friendly', 'easier access', 'reduce transaction cost', and 'paperless transactions'. Below this is a 'Welcome to e-Procurement Programme' section with a paragraph explaining the portal's purpose. It includes links for 'e-Procurement Programme Overview', 'Account Activation for new suppliers', and 'Forgot Password?'.
